August 3rd, 1925.

Hooper S. Miles, Esq.,
City Solicitor,
Salisbury, Md.

Dear Hooper:

In accordance with our previous understanding, my clients, Messrs. Elmer Adkins and John Mumford, have secured estimates from Mr. C. E. Marvel as to the costs of raising their houses six bricks higher, and the same are as follows:

Mumford job for raising house	$110.00
Bricks and brick work	75.00	$185.00
Adkins job for raising house	$ 90.00
For bricks and brick work	75.00	$165.00

If the Mayor and Council is willing to pay these expenses, I am authorized to say to you that all filling in will be done by my clients and they will promptly lay their sidewalks and pay their street assessments. I feel the estimates of Mr. Marvel are extremely reasonable and trust you people will see their way clear to accept this proposition. You will, of course, understand that this offer is made purely as one of compromise and without any prejudice to the rights of these people in the premises. If you will take this matter up at once and let me know the decision, it will be greatly appreciated.
